

What Comprises the Word of the LORD?

By Ed R. Meelhuysen, Editor & Scripture Compiler, www.BiblePlus.org, FaceBook: BiblePlus

What Comprises the Word of the LORD? In other words, what makes up the Word of the Lord? Before you answer, think carefully. Which belief system is the standard that guides you?

1. The Bible only, or
2. The Words of the LORD throughout history until the end of time

There is a profound difference between the two!

If you hold onto Position 1, then nothing outside of the Bible really matters. In fact you have to REJECT anything else that claims to be the Word of the LORD. You don't even have to check it out. This I have seen personally many times.

If you hold onto Position 2, then a world of inspiration opens up to you. You test the words of messages by the biblical standard. You "Despise not prophesyings." (1 Thessalonians 5:20) You embrace the testimony of Enoch,¹ you embrace the book of the Law and the Testimony² dictated to Moses on Mt. Sinai, you embrace the visions of Ellen White,³ and you are open to other messages that the LORD will send before the great and terrible Day of the LORD!⁴ You agree with inspired texts that say the LORD will send additional messages all along until the end of time.⁵

If you hold onto Position 1, then there is no need to check into anything else other than the Bible. It feels safe to hold onto the familiar. It requires no additional study on your part. It feels safe to maintain the status quo. Thus, as some have told me, they reject the notion that God will send ANY MORE messengers. If one doesn't understand something in the scripture, then one simply calls a teaching an allegory, an example, a fable, symbolic or something awaiting explanation for a later time. But is this position really safe? Or is it, in fact, really dangerous?

If you hold on to Position 2, then one may search for answers and find them by examining the books surrounding the Old Testament or even before it (as found among the Dead Sea Scrolls and other troves of ancient books). One may find wonderful, marvelous words that illuminate the Bible's more controversial texts. One may also find keys that unlock a greater understanding of the future including the prophecies of the books of Daniel and Revelation. One sees the illumination of a path to heaven that Jesus Himself testifies of. Should one reject that?

I used to publish a magazine called Sola Scriptura, only the Scriptures, only the Bible. But as I studied the Bible and compiled thousands of Bible texts, I began to realize that while the Bible is complete for salvation, there were many unanswered questions that are fair to ask. There are concepts that appear to be unclear in the Bible that have led to various perspectives and interpretations and the many denominations in the Christian world today.

When I asked about more controversial texts, the explanations given me didn't make much sense, or I was told over and over, it's just an allegory, just an allegory. In other words, we don't know so just take those various teachings as a story. But this felt inadequate and a shirking or dereliction of a Bible student's duties. So I kept studying and was led to the ancient books of history, those found among the Dead Sea Scrolls, as well as more modern messengers of God. And amazing clarity came! No longer were items just allegories, but they came alive with understanding, backed upon multiple evidence and sources, and Bible verses glowed with new light. Verses that were given in symbolic language were clarified in plain language. The blinders came off my eyes.

But when I tactfully shared these findings, they were not met with openness, but extreme close-mindedness! Most church leaders and members stopped their ears upon the first mention of something other than the Bible, let alone examined or tested the content. Church leaders stopped me, two ministers essentially kicked me out of their churches... for finding and sharing truth! Really? Really! Why? The pastors and most members held onto Position 1, only the Bible! ⁶

I have concluded that it is the Words of the LORD throughout the ages, and not just the Word of the LORD as revealed in the Bible that is important. The Word of the LORD is broader than the Bible! The LORD seeks to communicate to His professed people today, but blindly, church leaders and members won't even entertain looking at what God might convey to them. Church leaders and members may study the rejection of Jeremiah, of Jesus, of Paul, of Zachariah and other prophets by the leaders and people of the church and governments of their day, and yet our modern leaders and members do the very same thing! Is this not sheer hypocrisy for failing to learn!

“It is hardly possible for men to offer greater insult to God than to despise and reject the instrumentalities He would use for their salvation.” Ellen White, Patriarchs and Prophets, p. 402. By instrumentalities, she was referring to God's messengers or prophets.

“As soon as the books of record are opened, and the eye of Jesus looks upon the wicked, they are conscious of every sin which they have ever committed. They see just where their feet diverged from the path of purity and holiness, just how far pride and rebellion have carried them in the violation of the law of God.

1. The seductive temptations which they encouraged by indulgence in sin,
2. the blessings perverted,
- 3. the messengers of God despised,
4. the warnings rejected,
5. the waves of mercy beaten back by the stubborn, unrepentant heart

⁶ As an active Bible teacher at the church, I had two long-time pastors who sat in my classes afterwards tell myself or someone else that the classes were the best they had ever been to. Why? Because I point to Jesus, and provided clarity due to a greater understanding.

—all appear as if written in letters of fire.”

White, The Great Controversy, p. 666.2 (numbers were added and boldface provided to emphasize these grave sins.)

“Believe in the Lord your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.” 2 Chronicles 20:20

So is it safe to reject messengers God may send? Can one insult God and remain safe for eternity? Note the conclusion of Jesus in his discourse to the scribes and Pharisees: “Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?” Matthew 23:33

The Bible is the Word of the LORD as given over a period of time but not ALL time. The Word of the LORD came before the time of the Bible (e.g. through Enoch, Balaam and others) and there is much evidence to believe that God has sent, continues to send, and WILL send messengers before the great day of the LORD. The scriptures of Jesus’ day included more books than our Old Testament today, including some that gave more prophecies of who Jesus really is!

What does the Bible say about prophets, God’s messengers?

Numbers 12:6

“And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the Lord will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream.”⁷

Deuteronomy 18:15-19

“The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken; According to all that thou desiredst of the Lord thy God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of the Lord my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not. And the Lord said unto me, They have well spoken that which they have spoken. I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him.”

⁷ In Deuteronomy 13:1-5, God gives a sign of a false prophet, i.e. he will seek to draw people to another god.

“If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder, And the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them; Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Ye shall walk after the Lord your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and ye shall serve him, and cleave unto him. And that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he hath spoken to turn you away from the Lord your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the Lord thy God commanded thee to walk in. So shalt thou put the evil away from the midst of thee.”

Amos 3:7

“Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he reveals his secret unto his servants the prophets.”

2 Kings 17:22-23

“For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them; Until the Lord removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.”

Jeremiah 23:28-29

“The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. ... Is not my word like as a fire? saith the Lord; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces? ”

Ezekiel 33:33

“And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.”

Daniel 9:6

“Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.”

Joel 2:28-31

“And afterward, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days. I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and billows of smoke. The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.”

Amos 2:11-12

And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the Lord. But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophecy not.”

Zechariah 1:4

“Be not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me,” saith the Lord.

Malachi 3:1

“I will send my messenger, who will prepare the way before me. Then suddenly the Lord you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come,” says the LORD Almighty. (This verse was quoted by the gospel writers in Matthew 11:10, Mark 1:2, Luke 7:27)

Malachi 4:5-6

“Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.”

Matthew 23:34-36

[And to the church leaders (“scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites”), Jesus said] “Therefore I am sending you prophets and sages and teachers. Some of them you will kill and crucify; others you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town. That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.”

Revelation 11:3,7-8

“And I will give power unto my two witnesses [prophets], and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth. ... And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit [Satan incarnate] shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.” [Those are 4 clues that the location is Jerusalem]

A Testimony given through Enoch, the first human taught writing

“And in the eleventh jubilee, Jared took to himself a wife, and her name was Baraka, the daughter of Rasujal, a daughter of his father's brother, in the fourth week of this jubilee, and she bare him a son in the fifth week, in the fourth year of the jubilee, and ¹⁷ he called his name Enoch.

“And Enoch was the first among men that are born on earth who learnt writing and knowledge and wisdom and who wrote down the signs of heaven according to the order of their months in a book, that men might know the seasons of the years according to the order of ¹⁸ their separate months. And he was the first to write a testimony and he testified to the sons of men among the generations of the earth, And what was and what will be, he saw in a vision of his sleep, as it will happen to the children of men throughout their generations until the day of judgment; he saw and understood everything, and wrote his testimony, and placed the testimony on earth for all ²⁰ the children of men and for their generations.” Book of Enoch⁸

Note the phrase: “he saw in a vision of his sleep, as it will happen to the children of men throughout their generations until the day of judgment” The statement is that dreams and visions will continue through time until the Day of Judgment, also known as the Day of Condemnation in the book of the Law and the Testimony.⁹

Ellen G. White is acknowledged to be a messenger (prophet) of the Lord by many as she was a founder of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church and her visions and books are held in high regard by the younger pastors of many denominations. Yet holding onto the position of “the Bible and Bible alone” dispenses with the messages given through White, and indeed, there is a movement going on within the SDA church (and which took further root at the General Conference session in 2015) to hold absolutely to Position 1 and thus reduce her writing from authoritative to an opinion. But even White said she was not the last messenger God would send:

“Prophecy must be fulfilled. The Lord says, ‘Behold, I send you Elijah the prophet, before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord.’ Somebody is to come in the spirit and power of Elijah, and when he appears, men may say, ‘You are too earnest, you do not interpret the Scriptures in the proper way. Let me tell you how to teach your message.’ There are many who cannot distinguish between the work of God and that of man. I shall tell the truth as God gives it to me, and I say now, If you continue to find fault, to have a spirit of variance, you will never know the truth.” Ellen G White, The Review and Herald, February 18, 1890

So

- If the Bible writers say God will send messengers/prophets through to the end of time,
- If Enoch wrote that visions “will happen to the children of men throughout their generations until the day of judgment”
- If Ellen White wrote that “Somebody is to come in the spirit and power of Elijah” (future tense), and that it is a grave insult to God to reject His messengers and those who reject God’s messengers will not be in the New Jerusalem,

Then which position should you take? Which camp do you fall into?

1. Do you hold strictly onto the Bible and potentially become guilty of the greatest insult one can offer our Creator, to reject His messengers? Persecuting them? Chasing them out of the church? Slandering them? Threatening them with trespassing, disfellowshipping them, etc.?
2. Or do you hold onto the Words of the LORD throughout the ages, being open to whoever God may send us to teach us the way of righteousness? And see the miracles that God has promised to those who believe? Both in your life and the life of others?

I hold on to the second and am willing to live and die for the Words of the LORD, past, present and future. Are you open enough to join me in learning and sharing this Word?

Choose Well! Your eternal destiny depends on it.
